

Report on Loreto LEADS International Webinar
Loreto Empowerment and Development Series for Students
Go and Fly Towards your Dreams: Overseas Academic Opportunities
June 26, 2021

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Loreto College under the aegis of the Loreto LEADS venture, organized an International Webinar on Go and Fly Towards your Dreams: Overseas Academic Opportunities on June 26, 2021.

The Webinar was organized for the Departments of English, Education, History and Political Science, which was attended by 87 participants, including students and faculty. The resource persons were alumni pursuing higher education from prestigious universities in United Kingdom and United States of America.

Objectives of the Webinar

- Share knowledge and build strong relationship between the students and alumni.
- Recognize alumni who have achieved success played a pivotal role across various sectors
- Provide opportunity to benefit from the advice from alumni for academics and future employment prospects
- Highlight the requirements of international universities
- Empower the girls to plan to seek admission in prestigious Universities abroad

At the end of the Webinar the participants were able to:

- Comprehend the key features on which a university would grant admission
- Assess the importance of imbining employability skills and internships
- Gain information about admission procedure, scholarships, visa modalities, focus on a realistic Statement of Purpose and how to prepare themselves as a competent graduate
- Evaluate valuable insights and suggestions from the alumnae across the world

FEEDBACK SUMMARY REPORT

Total Respondents: 87

- Excellent – 72
- Very Good – 13
- Good – 2

WEBINAR RATING

