

Report on Loreto LEADS Webinar
Loreto Empowerment and Development Series for Students
Usage of IPR in Academic Domain
April 26, 2022

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Loreto College under the aegis of the Loreto LEADS venture, organized a Webinar on Usage of IPR in Academic Domain on April 26, 2022.

The distinguished resource person was Dr. Deevanshu Shrivastava, Head, Jagran School of Public Policy and International Affairs, Jagran Lakecity University, Bhopal. Young people across the globe, are stepping up to innovation challenges, using their energy, their curiosity and creativity to steer a course towards a better future. The IQAC commemorated the World Intellectual Property Day and organized this Webinar which is in alignment with the theme of the World Intellectual Property Day of 2022 which focuses on IP and Youth innovating for a better future.

Objectives of the Webinar

- Educate students on IPR and associated global policy
- Motivate and inspire participants to undertake research and adhere to IPR
- Enable students to understand the modalities of copyright
- Explore technological skills and knowledge to adhere to IPR in academics

At the end of the Webinar the participants were able to:

- Comprehend the basics of IPR
- Evaluate and compare the various copyright and patent options
- Understood the importance of copyright and plagiarism
- Comprehend the various methods of preventing Plagiarism

FEEDBACK SUMMARY REPORTTotal Respondents: 115

- Excellent – 68
- Very Good – 27
- Good - 20

WEBINAR RATING