

Report on Loreto LEADS Webinar
Loreto Empowerment and Development Series for Students
From Classroom to Corporate
May 14, 2022

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Loreto College under the aegis of the Loreto LEADS venture, organized a Webinar on From Classroom to Corporate on May 14, 2022.

The distinguished resource person was Ms. Aditi Mukherjee, Executive Vice President & Head HR, National Commodity & Derivatives Exchange Limited (NCDEX), Mumbai. The main objective of this webinar was to enable students to face an Interview Board and frame effective Curriculum Vitae. She stressed on the importance of HR in the Corporate sector. The session was geared specifically towards women in the HR sector and the advantages of gaining employability skills.

Objectives of the Webinar

- Assist students to achieve the confidence to face an Interview
- Motivate and inspire participants to opt for HR as a career option
- Enable students to frame an effective Curriculum Vitae

At the end of the Webinar the participants were able to:

- Comprehend the scope of HR
- Evaluate and compare the various kinds of CVs
- Understood the requirements of facing an interview board

