Miss Andrews had her breakfast brought to her in bed as usual. Tea, a boiled egg, and a slice of pawpaw. The fruit on the island, thought Miss Andrews, was rather disappointing. If she could have a nice apple now — but apples seemed to be unknown. The weather was always the same — fine. No interesting variations. After her usual walk, Miss Andrews was slowly returning to the hotel when she met Molly Kendal. For once that sunny young woman was not smiling. Her air of distress was quite unlike her. Miss Andrews was surprised.
