

Visit to Kolkata Police Limelight Library and Museum

On March 14, 2024, the Library Society organised a visit to the Kolkata Police Limelight Library and Museum. This was attended by 12 students and 2 staff advisors for Library Society. The group's first stop was the Kolkata Traffic Police Museum, where Inspector Somnath Mukhopadhyay led the students on a tour through the exhibits and information boards. These displays showcased the history of the Kolkata Police Force and the city itself.

Following the museum tour, the group proceeded to the Limelight Library which contained five rooms housing a diverse collection of books. Literature, self-help guides, autobiographies, competitive exam resources, and a dedicated children's section were just some of the categories available. The library even boasted a section specifically focused on Supreme Court cases. The excursion concluded with a vote of thanks expressed to the Deputy Commissioner of Police Wireless Branch and Inspector Somnath Mukhopadhyay for their gracious hospitality in allowing the group to explore the Library and for providing them with such a knowledgeable guidance. The experience proved informative and enlightening for all participants, offering them a glimpse into the history of the Police Force and the opportunity to delve into a vast collection of books.
