and abroad, culminating in his post as Associate Professor at Gonzaga University, Washington State, USA, from 2006 till his untimely demise in 2013. His connection with Loreto College from 2002 to 2008 found expression in several projects with the Dramatics Society, including conducting a Workshop on Improvisational Theatre in 2002, which inspired them to produce his adaptation of Alice in Wonderland as the Annual Drama in 2003. In 2005, Brian directed a beautiful production of A Midsummer Night's Dream on the lawns of Loreto College, with actors from Rabindra Bharati University as well as the Loreto College Dramatics Society. On his last visit to the city in 2008, he presented a play reading at Starmark and the American Center with a Loreto Alumna, Malobika Bhattacharya. Brian loved Loreto College and encouraged the Dramatics Society to reach new heights. One of his last wishes was that part of his ashes should be buried on the college lawn. It is only fitting that a special medal for Outstanding Contribution to College
