

LORETO COLLEGE STUDENT SECURES A BRONZE AWARD
IN THE QUEEN'S ESSAY COMPETITION, 2021, CONDUCTED BY THE ROYAL COMMONWEALTH SOCIETY

Priyanka Mundhra

Priyanka Mundhra, of the Department of Geography of Loreto College, Kolkata, participated in The Queen's Essay Competition, 2021 and secured a Bronze Award for excellence in writing. The Queen's Commonwealth Essay Competition is the world's oldest writing competition, established in 1883. Nationals and residents of all Commonwealth countries and territories aged 18 and under are eligible to enter the competition, including entrants from Zimbabwe. She was eligible to participate in the Senior Category (Born between 1st July, 2002 and 30th June, 2007) and choose from the following topics:

- 1) Discuss the following: “The greatness of a community is most accurately measured by compassionate actions of its members.”- Coretta Scott King.
- 2) Keeping connected through Covid-19.
- 3) It’s been 30 years since the end of the Covid-19 pandemic, what does the world look like?
- 4) Imagine you are the head of a Commonwealth nation heavily affected by COVID-19 and giving a national address at the end of the pandemic. What would you say to your community?

Priyanka chose the first topic and was awarded the Bronze Award for Excellence in writing.
